Puzzles

Find the four animals hidden in the following puzzles.

Walking around proud and vain,
fanning a fan around its nose,
it looks down on you with haughty disdain,
shiny but puffed up from head to toes. ?

Solution:
peacock, kangaroo, lion, turtle

A crownless king, yet kind of scary,
he doesn't have a throne or chair.
His roar will make you become wary,
his neck is full of golden hair. ?
He wears it like his proof of reign,
it's not called hair; it's called a mane.

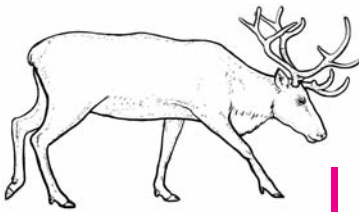

Hopping and jumping like a flea,
it always lets you fall behind. ?
Leaps lightly over a fallen tree,
with a bag on its belly for stuff to hide.

No need to hurry and run quick,
enjoy the slow pace, that's the trick,
it says and goes on trudging. ?
Dressed in an armour like a noble knight,
it has no sword, but it can bite.

Anagrams

Can you change the order of the letters in these seemingly nonsensical words and find the hidden animals? Good luck!

And we have one more task for you. One anagram has wandered among the rest and is missing a picture. Do you know which one it is?
